CLIENT: MANCHESTER CITY FOOTBALL CLUB

“I worked with David and his team at the start of the season as we looked to build the strongest support team we possibly could.”

“The work they did, in a short period of time, enabled us to bring in a range of experts from across Europe within football and the wider high performance world and create shortlists for a number of roles.

This gave us the peace of mind and confidence that we were choosing some of the best practitioners in the business. I can say with confidence they helped create the strongest team I have ever worked with”

Max Sala – Head of Sports Medicine First Team at Manchester City Football Club
